

XM Radio Provides an Incredible reasource and selection that is unavailable anywhere else. The bottom line is that I, as a user pay for it so that means I want it. Why would the goverment step in and say that I shouldn't have the ability to pay for the information I want, Instead I should be forced to listen to a local am radio staion and wait every 10-20 minutes to get an update traffic or weather report. Let's use some common sense. If the local radio station have a problem with it they need to figure out a new way to make revenue. This is still a capitalist society, not socialist...
